Joanie Shawhan is an author and speaker who finds hope in difficult situations. She shares true-life stories, offering her reader an eyewitness view of the action. Her Selah Awards Finalist book, In Her Shoes: Dancing in the Shadow of Cancer, reflects the value of “Your story plus my story become our stories.” An ovarian cancer survivor and registered nurse, Joanie speaks to medical students in the Survivors Teaching Students program. She co-founded an ovarian cancer social group: The Fried Eggs—Sunny-Side Up. Several local television stations and a cable network have featured her book and ovarian cancer journey. Joanie has shared her story on national radio programs and podcasts. She was a guest speaker at the One Heart Interdenominational Women’s Conference. Publishing credits include multiple anthologies, The Upper Room, and Coping with Cancer Magazine. When not attending her book club or writing critique group, Joanie advocates for ovarian cancer awareness and enjoys swimming, knitting, books, and music. You can find her books, media interviews, blog, speaker topics, and contact information at joanieshawhan.com

Speaking Topics

Looking for an inspirational speaker? Joanie would love to speak to your group: Women’s Conferences and Retreats, Workshops and Seminars, Banquets or Brunches, Cancer Awareness, Renewal and Outreach. Some categories include:

Torn, Tattered, Woven. Life events can tear us apart and we wonder if we will ever be whole again. But God can gather the frayed pieces of our lives and weave them into a beautiful tapestry reflecting His glory.

Help! The World is Spiraling Out of Control! How are we to respond when the culture around us seems to be spinning toward a downward trajectory? God has revealed a pattern for us in the Psalms.

Firestorm! Fires often roar around us with no warning, leaving a wake of devastation and debris. How do we come through the trials by fire in our lives without smelling like smoke?

Dancing in the Shadow of Cancer. My journey through ovarian cancer and what I have learned to encourage others whether you are a cancer survivor or standing with a loved one in the shadow of cancer.

The Elusive Mr. Happiness. Compared to many in the world, we have more than enough, so why are we unhappy?

His Eye Is On the Sparrow. But what does God really see when he looks at us? Who are we under is loving gaze?

If Joy Is the Language of Heaven, Then Why Do I Feel Like a Foreigner? Jesus said that He came so our joy may be full (John 15:11) What is joy and how can we experience joy in our everyday lives?

This talk works well as a three-part presentation or retreat format.

Help, I’m Sinking! Where is My Life Preserver? Sometimes our baggage prevents us from experiencing the presence of the Lord in our lives. What do we need to toss overboard?
